The Fourth Sunday after
Pentecost
Prayers for Social Justice

For anyone who is in Christ, they are a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here. It is all God's work. It is God who through Christ has won us back and given us a share in this work of reconciliation. [2 Corinthians 5:17-18]

New Rector Search

An important part of the search for a new rector is identifying who we are and what we as a parish are called to be. Ordinarily, we would gather that information at a parish-wide meeting. Since that is not possible, we will be hosting a series of Zoom meetings where we can discuss and reflect on these topics. For those without access to Zoom, we will schedule two in-person meetings sometime in July after we have received permission from the diocese to reopen. Members of the vestry and search/profile committees will facilitate these meetings. Please contact Ginny Starkis (vstarkis@Verizon.net or 508-488-6875)

Next Steps: Trinity in Phase 2:

The Vestry met on June 22nd and made the following decisions for July and August:

1. We will continue with Morning Prayer via ZOOM, and we will plan one special outdoor service in August, pending public health protocols. Beginning on July 15, the church will be open for private prayer on Thursday evenings and Sunday mornings
2. At the July 13th meeting the Vestry will decide when to open the building to community groups and under what conditions.
3. The Vestry will decide after the current schedule of ZOOM parish meetings whether to open the building for small groups of parish members.
4. The office will be open on appointment only on Mondays and Thursdays, 10am – 3pm

Pledges

Thank you to everyone who has continued regular offering of your pledges. Our expenses continue even with our suspension of normal activity. During this period, please mail your pledge to the parish office to the attention of the Treasurer. Some of you are facing financial stress: If so, please give what you can; if not, please give a bit extra to support those who cannot.
