June 14th: Honoring our Graduates

At Morning Prayer next Sunday we will recognize our graduates and say special prayers for them:

College Graduates: Jacqueline Masse & Elaina Chambers

High School Graduates: AJ Cook, Liam & Rory Crisfield, Brandon Kee, Grace Prevelige, Betsey Scrimgeour,

Eighth Grade: Harrison Philips & Anthony Ruggiero

Profile and Search Committees: Applications Invited

On July 13th, the Vestry will appoint members of the Profile and Search Committees. It seems like a very long time since we invited applications, so we are asking again. We have a new story to tell now, and perhaps new priorities. Please consider whether you are called to serve on one of these committees. Canon Simpson will meet with the Committees and Vestry on September 12th. The work of the Profile Committee will take place in the fall; the work of the Search Committee will take place in the winter and early spring. Please contact Ginny Starkis or Susan Edmondson if you are interested in learning more.

A Gathering for Prayer
Friday June 19th

June 19th, also known as Juneteenth, is the anniversary of the official ending of the Civil War and the ending of slavery. On this day, we will hold an ecumenical gathering for prayer outside at Trinity. Watch for more information about the time and arrangements.

Pledges

Thank you to everyone who has continued regular offering of your pledges. Our expenses continue even with our suspension of normal activity. During this period, please mail your pledge to the parish office to the attention of the Treasurer. Some of you are facing financial stress: If so, please give what you can; if not, please give a bit extra to support those who cannot.

Zoom Morning Prayer & Fellowship
